Georgia

ABOUT GEORGIA

Georgia is sovereign state in the Caucasus region of Eurasia, located at the crossroads of Western Asia and Eastern Europe, it is bounded to the west by the Black Sea, to the north by Russia, to the south by Turkey and Armenia, and to the south east by Azerbaijan.

The capital and largest city is Tbilisi. Georgia covers a territory of 69,700 square kilometers, and its 2016 population is about 3.72 million.

Georgia is a unitary, semi-presidential republic, with the government elected through representative democracy.

Ethnic Georgians call themselves Kartvelebi, their land Sakartvelo meaning "A Land of Kartvelians" and their language Kartuli.

The climate of Georgia is extremely diverse, considering the nation's small size. There are two main climatic zones, roughly corresponding to the eastern and western parts of the country.

The Greater Caucasus Mountain Range plays an important role in moderating Georgia's climate and protects the nation from the penetration of colder air masses from the north.

The Lesser Caucasus Mountains partially protect the region from the influence of dry and hot air masses from the south.

ABOUT TBILISI

Tbilisi, formerly known as Tiflis, is the capital and the largest city of Georgia, lying on the banks of the Mtkvari River with a population of roughly 1.5 million inhabitants.

Located on the southeastern edge of Europe, Tbilisi's proximity to lucrative east-west trade routes often made the city a point of contention between various rival empires throughout history and the city's location to this day ensures its position as an important transit route for global energy and trade projects.

To the north, Tbilisi is bounded by the Saguramo range, to the east and south-east by the Iori plain, to the south and west by various endings (sub-ranges) of the Trialeti range.

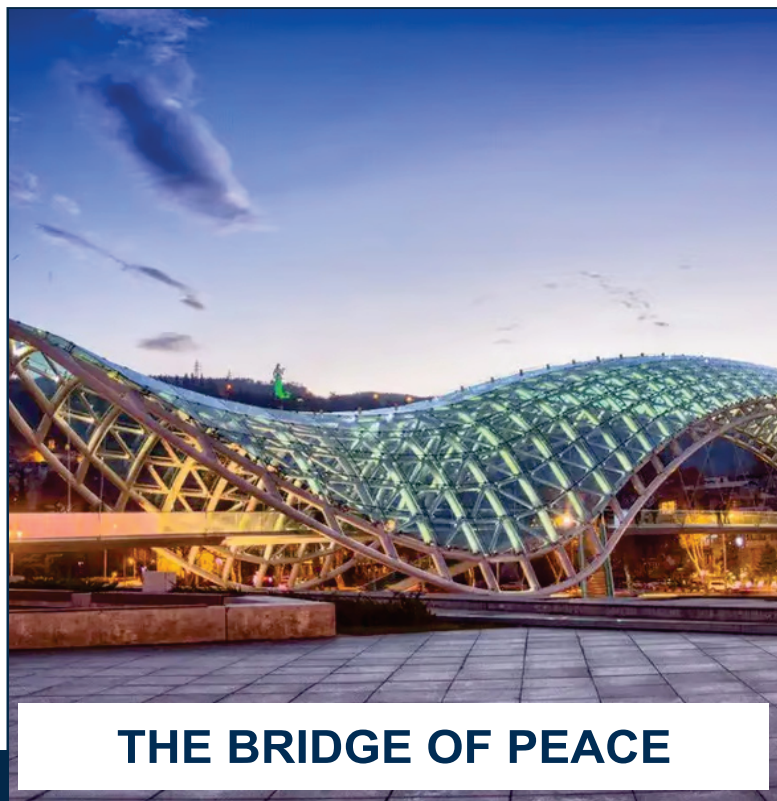

The city rises in terraces from both banks of the river Mtkvari, which is the main hydrological artery of the city. Attitude of the river bottom within the city is 200m above the sea level.

Climate Average annual temperature in the city is 14.5 degrees Celsius.

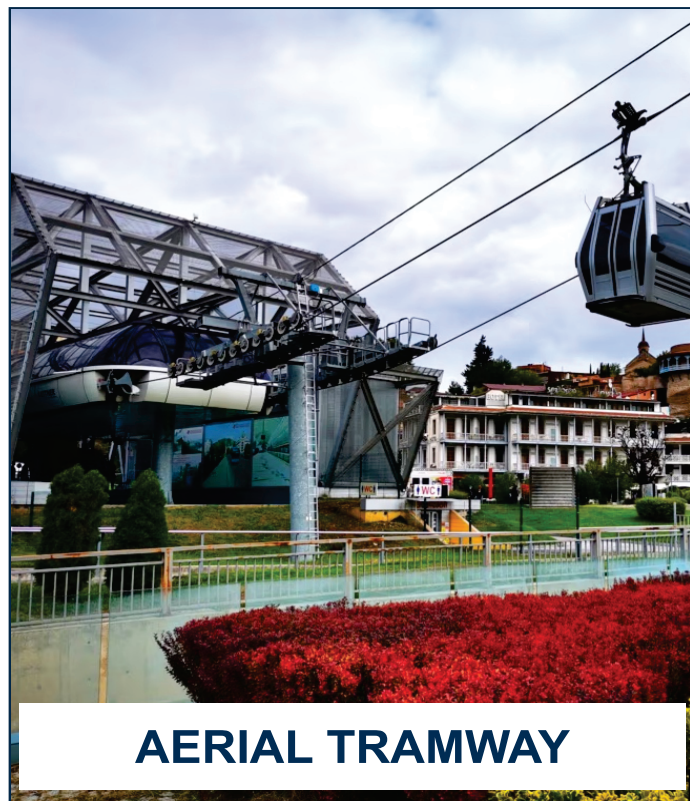

The climate of Tbilisi is transitional from humid subtropical to relatively mild continental. Average annual temperature in Tbilisi is 22.7°C. January is the coldest month with an average temperature of 0.9°C.

The warmest month is July with an average temperature of 24°C and max 40°C. April and May are wet with frequent sudden heavy downpours.

GEORGIA'S RELATIONS WITH INDIA

In 2019, India and Georgia signed a Free Trade Agreement (FTA) program, strengthening their diplomatic ties and creating significant opportunities for both countries in business and other sectors. This agreement was especially beneficial for Indian students, particularly in the medical field, and is expected to enhance cooperation and provide a wide range of professional education opportunities. In 2022, India exported Packaged Medicaments worth $35 million. During the last five years the exports from India to Georgia have increased to an annualized rate of 125% from $1.2million dollars in 2017 to $69.07 million dollars in 2022.

Additionally, direct flights between India and Georgia have been established, aiming to boost trade, investment, tourism, education, and cultural exchange. The Air Services Agreement (ASA) signed in Delhi allows Indian carriers to operate from any point in India to any point in Georgia, while Georgian carriers have direct operations to six Indian cities. This air connectivity, along with the 'Open Sky' regime, is crucial for fostering business relationships, accelerating economic growth, and providing easier access for Indian students studying in Georgia.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Giorgi Khurodze

President
East West University

Dear Applicants,

Welcome to East West University—a place where innovation meets tradition.

As the President of EWUNI, I am honored to lead an institution that has quickly established itself as a beacon of progressive medical training education in Georgia.

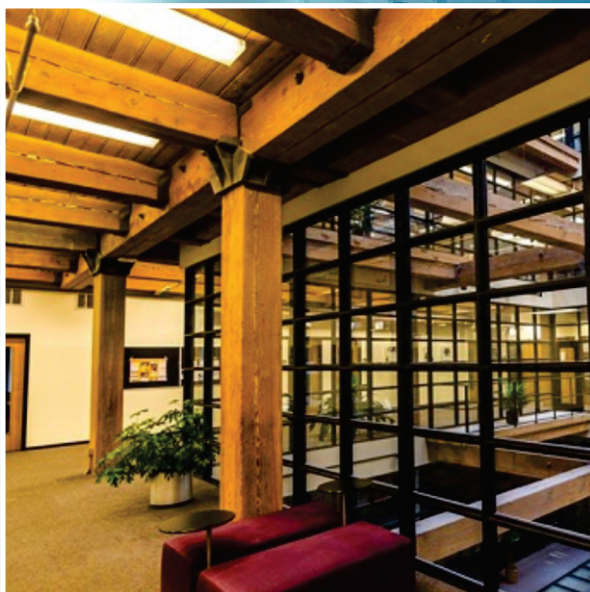

Since our inception, we have dedicated ourselves to creating a learning environment that not only challenges and inspires our students but also nurtures a global perspective. Our program, conducted entirely in English, is designed to integrate rigorous academic coursework with hands-on clinical experience. This unique blend ensures that our graduates are well-prepared to meet the ever-evolving demands of the global healthcare sector.

Our state-of-the-art facilities, modern laboratories, and digital classrooms are complemented by a supportive network of dedicated faculty and staff, all committed to fostering academic excellence and personal growth. In addition, our university clinics and advanced simulation center provide students with real-life medical experience in a controlled and professional setting. These resources allow students to practice critical medical procedures, enhance their diagnostic skills, and gain confidence.

Our commitment extends beyond the classroom. We provide a range of student services ensuring that every member of our community feels supported and valued. We are proud to maintain strong ties with international medical organizations, which not only validates the quality of our programs but also opens doors for our students worldwide.

I invite you to explore our vibrant campus, engage with our innovative programs, and become part of a community that is dedicated to making a positive impact on healthcare and society. Together, we are shaping the future of medicine and empowering leaders who will drive change in a global context.

Thank you for considering East West University. I look forward to welcoming you to our community and witnessing your journey of growth, discovery, and achievement.
